

Elizabeth Hanna, MHS, Reg. CASLPO (3103)
Speech Language Pathologist, ACTRA, OSLA

B_V phrases and sentences

/b/ is a voiced stop sound in English; its unvoiced counterpart is /p/.

/v/ is a voiced continuant; its unvoiced counterpart is /f/

As you practice these sentences make sure you're applying pressure to the bottom lip and holding the /v/ sound, saying it too crisply will make it sound more like a /b/

Bad investment	Cavernous basement	Victorious brutes
Very bright vest	Invaluable buoyancy	Vanquished bores
Black vacuum bag	Broad movements	Blue violets
Vague book review	Adventurous improvements	Violent babies
Brave villain	Broiling vegetables	Violet blossoms
Cave bottom	Brave vendetta	Invisible vases
Valuable brooch	Available table	Blind vision

1. Beatrice ventured out onto the beautiful verandah.
2. He vigorously boasted of his various boating adventures, but Victoria and Betty thought it was boring
3. He vaunted over the abutment and vaulted up to the embankment
4. Bob invested wisely, but Victor was vanquished by his taking too many vacations in Bermuda
5. Villains and buddies alike bought vases, bales of fresh hay, vests and boards at the sale
6. Velma braided her bountiful hair, vocalized gently and pulled on her velvet boots.
7. Veering off the best (and most virtuous) path, Benjamin and Vincent brewed bottles and bottles of beer.
8. The balcony was verdant with plant life, bent grass blended in with the blue veronica and other bright blooms.
9. Venus had made a brilliant invention, but Brian bungled the adventure.